

GeoCities knows or has reason to know is failing to delete the information upon request. GeoCities must also provide consumers with a reasonable and secure means to access the information that GeoCities previously collected from them.

Part VII permits GeoCities to retain certain personally identifiable information in its "archived database" for the limited purposes of site maintenance, computer file back-up, blocking a child's attempt to register without parental consent, or to respond to requests for such information from law enforcement agencies or pursuant to judicial process. GeoCities must disclose its retention of information in the archived database in its privacy notice.

Part VIII is a consumer education provision. It requires that for five years GeoCities place a clear and prominent hyperlink within its privacy notice directing visitors to the FTC's Web site to view educational material on consumer privacy. Currently, the FTC site contains a brochure entitled: "Site-Seeing on the Internet," which can be found at www.ftc.gov/bcp/online/pubs/online/sitesee/index.html.

Part IX outlines GeoCities' recordkeeping requirements under the proposed order. Part X requires GeoCities to deliver a copy of the order to certain company officers and personnel. Part XI requires GeoCities to establish an "information practices training program" for employees and GeoCities Community Leaders, volunteers who provide a variety of services to GeoCities' members. The program must include training about GeoCities' privacy policies, information security procedures, and disciplinary procedures for violations of its privacy policies.

Parts XII and XIII require GeoCities to notify the Commission of any change in its corporate structure that might affect compliance with the order; and to file compliance reports with the Commission. Part XIV is a "sunset" provision, dictating that the order will terminate in twenty years absent certain circumstances.

The purpose of this analysis is to facilitate public comment on the proposed order. It is not intended to constitute an official interpretation of the agreement and proposed order or to modify in any way their terms.

By direction of the Commission.
